

Major cities in Michigan's 1st District

Alpena - The population was 10,483 at the 2010 census.

Calumet - The population was 726 at the 2010 census.

Cheboygan - As of the 2010 census, the city population was 4,876.

Escanaba - . The population was 12,616 at the 2010 census,

Gaylord - The population was 3,645 at the 2010 census.

Iron Mountain - The population was 7,624 at the 2010 census.

Ironwood - The population was 5,387 at the 2010 census.

Ishpeming - The population was 6,470 at the 2010 census

Hancock - The population was 4,634 at the 2010 census

Houghton - As of the 2010 census, the city population was 7,708.

Kingsford - The population was 5,133 at the 2010 census

Manistee - The population was 6,226 at the 2010 census.

Marquette - The population was 21,355 at the 2010 census

Menominee - . The population was 8,599 at the 2010 census,

Petoskey - The population was 5,670 at the 2010 census.

Sault Ste. Marie - The population was 14,144 at the 2010 census,

Traverse City The population was 14,674 at the 2010 census, with 143,372 in the Traverse City metropolitan area.